Thank you to everyone who has requested a parent's consultation phone call next week. We are happy to accommodate other days/times if you are not available on the day you have been allocated so please let us know.

As the number of COVID cases increase in the local area increases I urge you to 'tighten up' on all routines and procedures to protect yourselves and your children.

Just to remind you on site, please keep your distance, keep children with you and all children must stay off the play equipment on the yard please. Please note all drop off and pick up times (see below) to ensure you arrive on time to avoid increased contact. Please can you ensure that if you need to talk to staff that you maintain a social distance from them.
